

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

LIVE NATION ENTERTAINMENT, INC.
and TICKETMASTER L.L.C.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:24-cv-3973-AS

UNITED STATES' EXPLANATION OF PROCEDURES UNDER THE ANTITRUST PROCEDURES AND PENALTIES ACT

The United States submits this memorandum summarizing the procedures of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)–(h) (the “APPA” or “Tunney Act”), related to the Court’s review of the Stipulation and Order (“Stipulation and Order”) and the proposed Final Judgment in this matter, which were filed at the same time as this Explanation.

1. The United States has filed a proposed Final Judgment and a Stipulation and Order, to which Plaintiffs the United States and the States of Arkansas, Iowa, Mississippi, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and South Dakota (together, “Settling Plaintiffs”) and Defendants have agreed. Settling Plaintiffs and Defendants have also agreed that the Court may enter the proposed Final Judgment after the requirements of the Tunney Act have been satisfied, as described in the Stipulation and Order. The United States will file a Competitive Impact Statement explaining the proposed settlement.

2. Settling Plaintiffs and Defendants ask that the Court sign the Stipulation and Order as soon as possible. The Stipulation and Order will ensure that Defendants preserve competition during the Tunney Act proceedings.

3. The Court should not sign the proposed Final Judgment until the requirements of the Tunney Act are satisfied. The Tunney Act requires that the United States (a) publish the proposed Final Judgment and the Competitive Impact Statement in the Federal Register and (b) cause a summary of the terms of the proposed Final Judgment and the Competitive Impact Statement to be published in one or more newspapers at least 60 days before the Court signs the proposed Final Judgment. The newspaper notice(s) will inform the public how to submit comments about the proposed Final Judgment to the United States Department of Justice's Antitrust Division. Defendants in this matter have agreed to arrange and pay for the required newspaper notice(s).

4. Members of the public who wish to submit comments will be invited to do so within 60 days following publication in the Federal Register and of the newspaper notice(s). The United States will prepare a response to any comments received during this period and will (a) file with the Court the comments and the United States' response and (b) publish the comments and the United States' response in the Federal Register unless this Court authorizes an alternative method of public dissemination of the public comments and the response to those comments pursuant to the Tunney Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(d). After the comments and the United States' response have been filed with the Court and published, the United States may move the Court to enter the proposed Final Judgment, as described in the Stipulation and Order, unless the United States has withdrawn its consent to entry of the Final Judgment, as permitted by Paragraph II.A of the Stipulation and Order.

5. As described in the Stipulation and Order, if the United States moves the Court to enter the proposed Final Judgment after compliance with the Tunney Act, the Court may enter the Final Judgment without a hearing if the Court concludes that the Final Judgment is in the public interest.
